

Walteria News Notes

Some of our talented young folks—again came to the foreground this last weekend when on Saturday both Carol Autil and Peggy Jo Meacham took prizes in the Portuguese Bend horse show. The next day, Sunday, Carol had reason to be particularly proud as she took first prize and won a trophy for junior horsemanship. The Becker brothers, Bob and George, who are television wrestlers, posed for a picture with Carol.

The Business Men's Club of Walteria took a group of boys to see the professional football game at the Coliseum Sunday. A fine time was had by all who attended as they watched the Rams romp over the opposing team. Those who helped in this YMCA project and furnished cars were: J. A. Beasley, Bob Sleeth, Ronald Taylor, Dale Wand, Nathan M. Gordan, T. M.

Kirk, all of Walteria, and Fred Stevens and Jack Knight of Palos Verdes. Also attending the game was a carload of eighth-grade girls, taken by their teachers, Cletus Nestlerode.

The Pandora Club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Stevens on Wednesday, November 29. Assisting Mrs. Stevens were two co-hostesses, Mrs. Dale Wand and Mrs. James Whitmer. After a short business meeting, during which they made plans for their Christmas party, the group enjoyed an evening of games. Approximately 22 members were there to welcome Mrs. J. S. Gorman of Long Beach as a new member. The next meeting will be their Christmas party on December 21 at the Recreation Hall.

Mrs. George Moser of El Segundo was a weekend guest of the T. M. Kirks, Nece avenue.

Mrs. W. H. Aitken and Mrs. H. A. Ziemer of Los Angeles spent Sunday with the William Mitchells at 3317 Danaha street.

Mrs. E. M. Fitzpatrick of Los Angeles was a Wednesday dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fitzpatrick of 3321 Danaha street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Combs, 24001 Nece avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Ramage and daughter, Sandy, over the weekend.

The J. F. F. Club had their meeting on November 22. Mmes. Harline, Haun, Conze, Kelly and Lockridge attended, among others.

Mrs. Harline entertained the Fidelis Club on Wednesday, November 29, at 24263 Los Codona. Refreshments were served during the meeting which was enjoyed by all. Attending were Mrs. Hamilton of Lomita, and Mmes. Crow, Flint, Haun, Sarge, Stonaker, Conze and Gehel, all of Walteria.

Mrs. Loughridge was welcomed back home on Saturday, December 2, after spending a week in the Magnolia Hospital at Long Beach where she underwent surgery. We are all glad to hear she is on the road to recovery.

Toloha Club Enjoys Gala Dinner Party

Toloha Club members were guests Friday evening at Jones Long Beach restaurant, returning to the Carson street home of Mrs. Loella Elder for an evening of games, with prizes for winners.

Next meeting of the philanthropic group will be held at the new home of Mrs. Ruth Buth on Ward street, Walteria.

Included in the dinner party were Mrs. Ruth Deems, a club guest and the following members: Mesdames Ruth Buth, Mabel Slover, Ines Ambill, Loella Elder, Edith Marriott, Ann Hight, Margaret Pullman, Sally Jenkins, Daisy Handel, Katherine Flynn, Olive Phillips, Merle Osborne, Polly Myrcsough, Marie Anderson, Mary Towler and Marjorie Lovell.
